This exhibition builds on the political and subversive structuring of the Dada and Neo Dada movements established in the early 1900s and 1960s while falling into a new category all its own. As an extension of the two, Neo Neo Dada brings together six artists whose work employs strategies extending beyond the traditional practices of the previous movements to engage the viewer with a current yet familiar conversation surrounding social concerns.

OPENING RECEPTION FRIDAY, SEPT 21, 6 - 8 PM
